

RMFN ELECTION COMMITTEE

RMFN Election 2023

Election Results

Dear President

Executive Officers and Board members

RMFN Lifetime and General Members

Rocky Mountain Friends of Nepal, Colorado

The Rocky Mountain Friends of Nepal Board of Directors constituted an Election Committee for the seven executive officers and seven Board of Directors for upcoming new term (April 2023 – April 2025) as per RMFN Bylaw Section IV Article IV and Section V Article III-V nominating us as the Coordinator and Members of the Committee.

The Election Committee drafted the policies and procedures for the free and fair election of the RMFN. The Election Committee notified to all members about the election method, election schedule and voting procedures. We published the final candidates list on March 1, 2023. The Election Committee did not receive any complains about nomination from any of its members and none of the candidates did withdraw their nominations in the given time frame.

There were only one candidate for each positions and the voting did not take place. The final list of candidates declared by the Election Committee are elected unanimously as Executive and Board of directors of the Rocky Mountain Friends of Nepal for the new term April 2023-April 2025.

Election committee did not receive any nominations for the post of Vice-President, Cultural Secretary and Student/Youth Representative. RMFN BOD will fulfill those positions from the RMFN Members in the future.

The elected candidates Name, Positions of Executive and Board of Directors are in the following table. We would like to congratulate the newly elected Officers and Board of Directors and wish their successful tenure.
